Make Every Sip Special

Hue, Stripe and Fit: A new series of glasses to elevate the table setting. As implied by their respective names, Hue is characterized by its touch of color, Stripe by its distinctive, hand-painted stripes, while the Fit Glasses simply fit elegantly into one another when stacked. The glasses can easily be mixed and matched for a personal, informal expression.

Hue Glass

Appearing as though they have been dipped in a rich, green dye, the Hue Glasses feature a beautiful, faded tone around the base. The glasses are characterized by their elegantly rounded shape and tinted hue, offering a depth to the otherwise light expression of the design.

Stripe Glass

The elegant glass tumbler boasts distinctive, hand-painted stripes in a vertical pattern. The stripes feature visible brush strokes from the paintbrush, making each glass a bit unique. The striped surface complements the minimalistic silhouette in the well-balanced aesthetic of the design. Stripe comes in two variants with blue or white stripes.

Fit Glass
The Fit Glasses embody a simple shape with an indented base, allowing them to stack easily into each other. Their minimalist expression and functional design make them ideal for everyday use. Fit comes in two different sizes in clear or smoke-colored glass.

Create an atmospheric setting that elevates breakfast, lunch and dinnertime with the expressive drinking glasses, easily combined with your existing tableware for a personal look.
